"Give up on the idea that your interiors will ever be 'done'.

*It's self-evident
when you really think about it- would you wear the same exact outfit for the rest of your life?
Why would you want your house to?"*

*"Bedrooms are a retreat from the rest of the house-
and the world-
and there's something incomparably
comforting about
canopy beds.
Instant safe haven."*

Shopping in Europe for 'one-offs' has inspired my collection for Century Furniture. Working with factories has helped us achieve this in-depth collection.

*The Tara Shaw
for Century
upholstered
sleigh bed and Swedish
hand-carved stools
make the perfect
pairing in a bedroom.*

*"Always feather
your nest with things that are meaningful to you. You should be able to 'read' a
great house
just like a biography."*

*The layering of a great antique
finish with mid-century is the perfect
design cocktail.*

The sexy two-seater bench, martini table and Neoclassical console are all fabricated in iron to add intriguing detail.

*"Antique finishes show age and history, blemishes and all. That kind of imperfection is a lovely thing to live with because it's so forgiving.
It's just what I want to come home to."*

- Tara Shaw

Tara Shaw's design principles stem from over 30 years of success as a "guerilla antiquer" in France, Italy, Sweden and Belgium. She is also a respected supplier of European antiques for a host of AD100, Veranda, Elle Decor A-listers, among others.

Tara is the author of Soul of the Home and is working on her second book for Abrams. Soul of the Home, was #1 in Antiques & Collectibles on Amazon for over two years. Her design work has a global clientele, and her work has been featured in numerous national and international shelter magazines.
